DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group II, (claim 37) in the reply filed on 2/04/2010 is acknowledged.

Claims 1-36, and 38-41 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 3/04/2010. In view of the withdrawal of the above listed claims, the applicants are now required to rewrite claim 37 to include the limitations of the now withdrawn claims 1 and 34.

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention (the means plus function language, "retaining means" covers all the disclosed embodiments of species 1-15 as outlined below and their equivalents). These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The applicants should now select one of the following electrical connector species:

Species 1, Fig. 1

Species 2, Fig. 2

Species 3, Fig. 3

Species 4, Fig. 4

Species 5, Fig. 5a

Species 6, Fig. 5b

Species 7, Fig 5c

Species 8. 5d

Species 9, 5e

Species 10, 5f

Species 11, 5g

Species 12, 5h

Species 13. 5i

Species 14, 5j

Species 15, 5k

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 3641

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of the retaining means per se is not novel or unobvious as evidenced by either Stauffer (US 3,897,131 A) or Muzslay (US 5,460,549 A). Each of these references disclose electrical connectors comprising retaining means solving a similar problem to that discussed in the instant application. Thus unity of invention does not exist between the disclosed species covered by the means plus function limitation, "retaining means". To search and examine all of the disclosed and claimed "retaining means" species would place an excessive burden on the examiner.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3641

7. Claim 37 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 37, line 8, it is unclear whether the bridge element is being positively claimed as being connected to the at least one electrical component that is retained in the shell or is the bridge element being claimed as only being capable of being connected to the at least one electrical component? The confusion arises because the plug member has previously been positively claimed (claim 37, lines 5, 6) as being secured to the opening at the opposite end of the detonator shell, and in such a position, the bridge element would already have been connected to the electrical component. Additionally, claim 34, lines 2-3, (claim 37 includes the limitations of now withdrawn claims 1 and 34) recited that, "said at least one bridge element being in electrical contact with said at least one electrical component".

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See the attached PTO-FORM 892.

9. In view of the withdrawal of Claims 1-36, and 38-41, the applicants are now required to rewrite claim 37 to include the limitations of the now withdrawn claims 1 and 34.
